

This guide is an opportunity for us to join together in prayer, believing what God's Word says about the power and necessity of prayer. The Lord has established that He acts in response to our prayers as we pray in accordance with His will. As we focus our prayers together in specific ways, we believe we will see God move in power within and around us.

The prayer points focus us toward areas which Scripture instructs us to pray: for our pastors and each other, for ministries, missionaries, and government leaders, for persecuted believers, the lost, and Christ's return. We are also to cry out to the Lord with personal concerns and for our own growth; the Scripture for "Salem & Self" contributes to this.

"Prayer is working together with God. Prayer is pulling with God in His plan for a world."

S. D. Gordon, Quiet Talks on Prayer

You are welcome to join Pastor David and others to pray in his office on Sunday mornings at 9:05 am

Thursday, January 1

- Pastor David: Peace – John 14:27
- Salem & Self: Psalm 105:3-4
- Pray that we, as a united body of believers, will be sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading and have clear discernment of God's vision for our church over this next year as He guides us and the leaders He has given us in working together for the gospel in our community and our world.
- Pray for Israel, our nation, and for Christ's return.

Friday, January 2

- Amanda Trump: Joy – 1 Peter 1:8
- Salem & Self: Psalm 55:22
 - Scot and Carol Musser, supported missionaries in Spain: This month, they plan to move into their new school building where they will be able to serve more students and families than ever before. In a country where only 2% are evangelical Christians, this building not only meets the needs for school growth, but will also be a ministry hub including after-school programs, summer camps, and possible use by local churches. These initiatives will open new doors for the gospel. Pray for the Lord's continued provision, for many lives and families impacted and changed by the gospel, and that they will see His hand at work in every area.
- Pray for the Legacy Center in Mount Airy, that God will provide every financial and resource need, and will stir the hearts of His people to serve in volunteer or staffing roles to join in what He is doing through this needed ministry.
- Pray for the people of our nation to return to the Lord and that He will bring renewal and salvation.

Saturday, January 3

- Pastor David: Abiding – Psalm 71:3
- Salem & Self: Deuteronomy 11:13-14
- Pray for the Salem Basketball league, that it will shine God's light into the community through sportsmanship and the faithful character of each person serving.
- Persecuted believers in North Korea: If discovered, Christians are either sent to labor camps or killed on the spot. Authorities often also round up and punish extended family, even non-believers. It's impossible to gather for worship or prayer, with great risk even in secret. For those who escape to China, spies work to discover and return them. "I know the risks involved. If I am caught, I could end up in a labor camp, paying a heavy price for being a Christian now." Pray for God to give Christians eyes to see His light in the darkness, for Him to make a way for them to worship together, and that He will refresh courageous believers with His peace.
- Pray for Israel, our nation, and for Christ's return.

Trusting the Lord with this change, Chad took a position as a pastor in Ohio as their children grew. With their adult children now living independently, God has opened new doors for mission work in Kenya, training Christians to reach people for Christ and plant new churches. Pray for them as they work with African believers and pray for their children as God continues to lead their lives.

She gave them cards with QR codes and the Deaf Olympic pins, explaining the colors on the pin through gospel stories. The Swedish and Danish athletes both accepted Jesus after understanding the gospel story. Praise the Lord that the pins opened doors to the gospel! During the event, the gospel was shared with 1,236 people from 68 countries. 10 people received Jesus as their Savior, 1 was baptized, and more than 2,500 people received the Olympic pins and QR codes, which link to gospel stories at any time.

- Persecuted believers in Somalia: A violent Islamist militant group controls much of the country and is committed to eradicating Christianity, often killing Christians on the spot. Persecution also comes from the family and community, as being Muslim is a large part of Somali identity, and conversion is seen as betrayal. Ask God to help secret believers know they are not alone. Pray for wisdom for parents as they teach their children about Jesus and how to follow Him. Pray that God will protect Christians and Christian leaders from attack.
- Pray for Israel, our nation, and for Christ's return.

Pray the teachers avoid too much speculation or opinion but ground everything in what Scripture says for sound Biblical teaching.
- Jackie Lewis, IMB missionary in Uganda: Jackie and her ministry partners work through a language preservation project to connect with isolated ethnic groups who live in the mountains. This provides opportunity for the gospel, as those who participate hear and interact with Bible stories to produce recordings of Scripture in their languages. Those recordings are refined for Scriptural accuracy and produced on SD cards to distribute to the people. Many in the tribes practice folk Islam, and Jackie has seen the Holy Spirit transform hearts in those previously hostile to Christianity. Pray for openness among the people and for protection and perseverance for Jackie and her team.

- Persecuted believers in Yemen: Many have fled the country due to severe monitoring from authorities and Islamic groups, and risk of prison, torture, or death. Yet many Yemenis disillusioned with Islam are searching for truth and finding out about Christ through online chats with secret Christians. “We are afraid...At the same time, we know that we are stewards of God’s commandments...Jesus took my pain, my suffering, and my guilt.
