Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love, to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expense of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions, to religiously educate our children, to seek the salvation of our kindred and other acquaintances, to walk circumspectly in the world, to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all gossip, back-biting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the use of intoxicating drinks; to use our influences to combat the abuse of drugs and the spread of pornography; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage in watching over one another in brotherly love, remembering each other in prayer, aiding each other in sickness and distress, cultivating Christian fellowship and courtesy in speech, being slow to take offense, always ready for reconciliation, and being mindful of the rules of our Savior and securing it without delay.

We believe that the principles outlined in this Covenant are beneficial for the church body and are always subject to the authority of Scripture. Section 3. Responsibilities of the Membership/The Membership Covenant

A. The Membership Covenant

The Membership Covenant is a pledge reflecting the ethical requirements of the Bible, which believers voluntarily make to God and to one another regarding the practice of their faith and their commitment to one another in the same local church. The Membership Covenant encourages unity in the church by defining the basic Biblical responsibilities that Church members have to one another. The Membership Covenant that binds the members of Salem Baptist Church together in fellowship and mutual accountability will be the following covenant:

1. I have accepted Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior, and I have been baptized by immersion.
2. I will protect the unity of my church by acting in love toward other members, refusing to gossip, following the pastoral leaders as they follow Christ, and following the leadership of the Deacons in service to the body.
3. I will share in the responsibility of my church by praying for its growth, inviting the unchurched to attend, and warmly welcoming those who visit.
4. I will serve my church's ministry by discovering my spiritual gifts and abilities, being equipped to serve, and developing a servant's heart.
5. I will support my church's testimony by attending faithfully and regularly, living a godly life, and giving regularly.
6. I have read and am in agreement with the Articles of Faith of Salem Baptist Church.

B. Responsibilities of Active Members

1. Be faithful in all the practices essential to Christian living.
2. Faithfully attend the services of this church, particularly the corporate worship services.
3. Practice stewardship of time, talent, and possessions.
4. Exercise the right to vote as a member of the church, when qualified to do so. Members are qualified to vote when they are members in good standing, aged 13 or older, and not under any term of discipline from the church.
5. No member of this church shall encourage non church- related activities during regularly scheduled church meetings or services except by prior approval of the church.

- C. By dropping from the roll those who have joined a church of unlike faith and order.
- D. By request of the member in writing or in person to the Church Clerk, Senior Pastor, or Charman of the Deacons. This means of ceasing membership is not to be used to avoid accountability, discipline, and responsibility to the local church. If a member requests to cease membership while church leadership considers or initiates church discipline, the Senior Pastor and Deacon Board will have discretion in determining the appropriate next steps.
- E. Disciplinary action terminating the membership of those who portray gross immoral and unchristian conduct will be pursued only after the principles set forth in the New Testament (e.g., Matthew 18:15-17, I Corinthians 5, etc.) have been practiced. Termination will be after due notice and hearing, and the failure of Christian love and forgiveness to produce repentance, or by failure to support the church's core doctrine and Articles of Faith. Such termination will require a motion from the Senior Pastor and Deacons, to be seconded from the floor at a business meeting called for this purpose. The motion will be voted upon and must receive a seventy-five percent (75%) vote for termination of membership.
- F. By failing to meet the responsibilities of church membership, specifically by prolonged inactivity, as described in Section 5.

- B. The Senior Pastor and Deacons shall review the church membership roster at least annually to determine active and inactive membership.
- C. A person being a member of a local church and not being active is not just a failure in membership responsibilities; it is contrary to the very concept of New Testament church membership. Therefore, unless an exception is made by the Senior Pastor and Deacon Board or by a majority vote of the church at a regular or called meeting with this as its stated purpose, in accordance with ARTICLE VII of these By-Laws, a member who remains inactive for more than two consecutive years without any regular involvement in a core ministry of the church, by default, will have resigned their membership in Salem Baptist Church.
